Academic Experience:Mini Project Title(APP): ‘Reminder’

Software used : Android studio

Description: This project reminds the users the daily intake of tablets and gets in sync with the nearby medical shops when the tablets get almost complete. This project is done specially for Geriatrics who frequently forget to take their medicines and it also helps them to contact the retailers directly.

Mini Project Title(Web application): ‘Helping Hand’

Software used : Django

Description: Our idea to make people who are willing to help others connect with the people in need of help. Be it blood donation or organ donation, or educational/financial help, Helping Hand is a platform for every such thing. People who are in need for blood donations, can look for the available donors of a particular blood group and can contact them. Also, the same information is forwarded to the donors via sms. The ones in need of organ donors, can see the list of available donors and can contact them. In case of educational help, one may register and place a request and the donors can see the list of requests.
